

SPECIAL EDUCATION AT A CROSSROADS:

Common Core, School Accountability Systems, School Choice Options, and their Impact on Students with Disabilities

FLORIDA

Florida Council of Administrators of Special Education

Each year the Florida Council of Administrators of Special Education (FLOCASE) hosts one annual Summer Leadership Institute where approximately 180 special and general education leaders share accomplishments and challenges while participating in leadership development activities. Our State meetings provide unique opportunities for your organization to deliver its message to many of the State of Florida's most influential special and general education decision makers. Please join us and inform our members how your products and services help enrich life opportunities for children and youth with disabilities.

FLOCASE is a leadership organization designed to support administrators from all of the school districts in Florida who are responsible for leading educational programs and services as well as positively impact policies, practices and outcomes for students with disabilities. FLOCASE was founded on the premise that mutual support; collegiality; sharing of information and resources; developing and planning/problem-solving partnerships while fostering collaboration with the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC), Council for Administrators of Special Education CASE), Florida Council for Exceptional Children (FCEC), Coalition for the Exceptional Education Students (CEES) and FLDOE's Bureau of Exceptional Children and Student Services (BEES) will strengthen each member and school district's ability to improve outcomes for students with disabilities and other diverse learners.
